Fairtrade Fortnight in Felixstowe

When this issue of Spotlight is distributed Fairtrade Fortnight will have begun but I hope it is in time to encourage you to come to our Family Fun Day on Saturday 2 March, 10am – 4.30, at the library. There will be games, competitions, a raffle, a tombola, a chocolate fountain and Fairtrade refreshments. Children from Trimley St Mary primary school are helping organise the games.

You will also have time to enter our free Fairtrade tea competition by completing a simple survey form at outlets serving Fairtrade tea. Look for the poster in the windows of participating cafes. Competition forms will be available too at the coffee mornings at Trinity Methodist Church which take place on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays (10am – 12).

You will also be able to enter and enjoy a free Fairtrade cuppa at our ‘tea on the prom’ event on Sunday 10 March, 2pm – 4, at Bath Tap (opposite the Bartlett). This is the closing date for entry.

Many thanks to the East of England Co-op who have provided the prize for this competition – a year’s supply of Co-op Fairtrade Tea (800 bags).

The events for Fairtrade Fortnight have been organised by the Felixstowe Fairtrade Forum. For more information visit www.felixstowe-fairtrade.org.uk
